Josh McGrath is a lifelong resident of West Virginia. Licensed at 18 years old, he has been selling real estate for 18 years. At 21, Josh became one of the youngest licensed brokers in West Virginia's history. He and his business partner, Angie, were the top selling team in their local market for many years. They opened Real Estate Central in 2005 which has grown to be one of the largest real estate firms in the market with 5 office locations and over 100 licensed sales agents.

Josh has been teaching Continuing Education to West Virginia agents since 2011. His main focus with his real estate firm is education and training of the agents. Josh is Past President of the Kanawha Valley Board of REALTORS and has served as Director for the West Virginia Association of REALTORS.
